MATTERS RATHER QUIET AT THE HOUSE ON THE HILL TO-DAY.

A CALM AFTER THE PARTISAN STORM.

Mr. Rogers Has a Little Set-to With Messrs. Lodge and Houk.

BOTH HOUSES ADJOURN TILL MONDAY.

Proceedings in the Senate.—The Conference on Silver—Important Nominations—Other Matters.

In the Senate this morning messages from the President were presented as to Indian lands in Kansas; as to postal and cable communication between the United States and the Latin-American States; and as to the celebration of the fourth centennial of the discovery of America, and as to the agreement between the Cherokee Commission and the Iowa Indians in the Indian Territory.

The Senate agreed to adjourn from today until Monday.

Mr. Plumb offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the Secretary of War for information as to whether articles were being manufactured at the national military hospital in competition with private enterprise, and the reason and authority for it.

Mr. Plumb also offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior to inform the Senate whether he has any knowledge of the guarantee, actual or proposed, by the Union Pacific Railroad Company of the bonds or stock of other corporations, more especially of the Oregon Navigation Company and of the Denver and South Park Railroad Company; whether the Union Pacific Railroad Company has paid out for its surplus earnings or otherwise the indebtedness of or any part thereof of those or other corporations, and if so, whether such guarantee or payment, or both, is in accordance with law, and consistent with the obligations of the Union Pacific Railroad Company to the United States; and the Secretary is directed to communicate all information in the possession of his Department on this matter.

This led to an animated debate between Messrs. Edmunds and Butler in regard to the failure of the Senate to consider the bill for the Select Committee on Pacific Railroads.

In the House this morning Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts asked for a report of the Federal Election bill with marginal notes.

Mr. Rogers of Arkansas demanded the regular order.

Mr. Lodge thought there was no necessity to get cross about the matter.

Mr. Rogers said the House had had enough of the bill.

Mr. Houk of Tennessee responded that the Democrats might get more of it.

Mr. Lodge's request was not acceded to.

Mr. Dorsey of Nebraska asked consent to offer a resolution requesting the Attorney to return to the House, will extending the time of payment to purchasers of land of the Omaha tribe of Indians in Nebraska, but objection was made.

Mr. McComas of Maryland presented the conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill.

After some debate and pending a vote on the conference report the House adjourned at 3:45 p. m. adjourned until Monday.

Important Presidential Nominations.

No Agreement on Silver.

Nothing resulted from the second meeting of the Senate and House conferees on the Silver bill to-day. Proposals to make all silver certificates hereafter issued full legal tender and to make currency duties payable in gold were made, but were not acted on. The main point at issue—that of free coinage—was not touched upon and the conferees adjourned to meet on Saturday.

Meanwhile the Republican members of the conference will endeavor to reach an agreement. The Democratic members say they will stand firm for free coinage.

The Speaker laid before the House to-day a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury transmitting a communication from the Assistant Treasurer at New York submitting an estimate of appropriation of $15,000 required to properly transact the increased business under the new pension legislation. The Secretary in his letter of transmittal recommends the increase asked by the Assistant Treasurer.

THE GOVERNOR WILL NOT SIGN IT, But the Lottery Bill Will Be Passed Over His Veto.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 3.—A Baton Rouge, La., special to the Evening Post says: Governor Nichols says he will not sign the Lottery bill, but the necessary two-thirds majority in both Houses will pass the bill over the Governor's veto.

The lottery constitutional amendment will carry at the polls because of the desperate need of funds for building high levees to protect crops from overflow in the Mississippi River districts. Lottery men declare that when a vote shall be taken upon the amendment by the people there will be bloodshed, because the people of Louisiana are desperately at loggerheads over the question.

Doekens on a Strike.

CHICAGO, July 3.—The dock laborers' strike is on and the strikers are having rather the better of it. From 100 men who struck four nights ago on the line—the Lehigh Valley—the strike has spread until 1,000 men and five transportation lines are now involved. The odd feature of the strike is the fact that the strikers are entirely unorganized. They have no union, but are simply uniting together from sheer force of common interest. Their work is so arduous that men unaccustomed to the work would be soon disabled by the sudden amount of money in replacing the strikers by new men at the prices offered is very high.

Professor Sullivan Takes Fight.

BOSTON, Mass., July 3.—John L. Sullivan, who is in town, talked freely with a United Press reporter last night. Among other things he said: "When I will fight again I do not know, but I do know that I stand ready to meet any man in the world, white or black, on a sufficient amount of money in replacing the strikers by new men at the prices offered is very high."

Mr. Hoge said that the committee was to have the Police Court hear and decide the case. A warrant, it is said, will be issued if Dean can be called upon to stand trial for assault.

She was sentenced last December by Chief Justice Bingham to one year's imprisonment in the Albany penitentiary for receiving stolen goods, and has been in jail for seven months awaiting a new trial. The Government officers thought she had had punishment enough.

He attempted to escape and was struck with a club by the officer who arrested him. The wound inflicted a fracture of the collar bone. Mafors was sent to the workhouse for thirty days.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. A Real Estate Agent Whose Whereabouts Are Unknown.

Another mysterious disappearance, which promises to puzzle the police and all those interested in the fate of the individual concerned, has occurred. John F. Collins, a prominent real estate agent, who lives on Four-and-a-half street south-west, is said to have disappeared on the 15th of June and has not been seen since. Just before his disappearance Mr. Collins was negotiating with Mr. W. J. Davis for the purchase of a valuable piece of property in the central portion of the city. He had deposited a considerable amount of money in order to bind the bargain, but the sale has not yet been closed up. The police are desperately at loggerheads over the question.

Inquiries were made at a number of houses where men answering to the name of Collins lived, but no trace of the missing man was found. The police would give any information in regard to the story.

THE CENSUS ROW.

Protestions in Minneapolis to Be Dropped.—The Report Denied.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 3.—The charges against the Minneapolis census enumerators are to be dropped, the evidence against them, in the opinion of George N. Baxter, special agent in charge of the government's prosecuting, within a few days. Mr. Baxter will forward to the Attorney-General at Washington his recommendation that the cases be dropped. He has not completed his examination of the evidence against the enumerators, but has proceeded far enough to feel reasonably sure that there would be no conviction.

LATE.—The report that Special Counsel Baxter had, upon examination of the evidence, recommended the dismissal of the census cases, is premature. Mr. Baxter's report was received by his commission only yesterday, and is busy examining the evidence.

ANGLO-GERMAN AGREEMENT DENOUNCED.

Stanley.—An Egotistic and Self-Advertising American Hero.

BERLIN, July 3.—No adequate conception can be formed from the reading of the official report of the unanimity of condemnation with which the Colonial Society, at its meeting held at Cologne on Tuesday last, received the Anglo-German agreement. At the banquet subsequent to the business meeting of the society open and vigorous expressions of dissatisfaction with the terms of the convention were given utterance.

Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, in a speech made by Major Liebert, the commissioner for East Africa, as an egotistic and self-advancing American hero, who had written up his adventures before they had been encountered.

Resurrecting Federalism.

From the Chicago Herald.

Cabot Lodge, the Massachusetts Republican who stands as sponsor in the House of Representatives for the Infamous Federal Election bill, is a descendant of George Cabot, who was a member of the notorious Essex Junto. The Essex Junto was a cabal of old Federalists, who held out for many years against the Democracy of Jefferson and in favor of the aristocracy of Hamilton. It is not surprising that the party which is the direct descendant of the old Federalist party, should have for a leader in its newest assault upon the liberties of the people a man who is a direct descendant of the bitterest of the old Federalist leaders. The business is congenial all around.

General Crook's Widow.

Man About Town in N. Y. Star.

I see that the widow of General Crook is to have a pension. A good many years ago she was the handsome and dashing Miss Daly of Cumberland, Md. It was her brother, a Confederate of McNeill's Partisan Rangers, who helped to capture General Crook. Kelly one night as they lay snug in their hotel at Cumberland surrounded by 10,000 Union soldiers. At that very time General Crook had in his mind to marry Miss Daly. He was, however, usually he was not deterred by her brother's opposing policies.

An Expensive Year.

From the Dayton Times.

It looks bad for Speaker Reed. The herring canners in his district are already talking of not less than $10 each for votes. His 3,000 majority at this rate will cost the protection barons $10,000. He comes high, but they will have to have him.
